SJYPA works closely with its beneficiary in a collaborative effort to market the event. SJYPA expects the selected beneficiary to assist with marketing efforts through e-mail distributions to the beneficiary's distribution lists and sharing posts on social media.

SJYPA is a volunteer run organization. The beneficiary is expected to provide volunteers to assist with the Halo Ball Planning Committee, which meets periodically from October through March, with meetings increasing closer to the event. In addition, the beneficiary is also expected to provide a minimum of 15 volunteers who will be available to work during the event (i.e. event setup, registration, auction ticket sales, auction check-out, etc.), with a minimum of ten volunteers to work the actual event for the full duration. Please describe your organization's ability to provide the required number of volunteers.

Please describe any other major fundraising events that your organization plans/hosts/sponsors throughout the year. If your events are sponsored, please indicate whether you are able to share your corporate sponsors list with SJYPA to solicit sponsorships for Halo Ball 2019.

Please note that the SJYPA Board of Trustees will review each beneficiary application. Should the SJYPA Board require additional information from your organization, we will reach out to the contact person listed above. SJYPA may request an additional in-person presentation or phone interview to be conducted in early September 2018.
